President Of Essex County Fruit Growers Association Claims Everything Has Been Done To Destroy Leno Package But Nothing Done To Replace It—Leno Not Responsible For Basket Contents.

NOTE—The following article is a reprint of a circular letter received last week by A. W. Eickmeier, Grimsby Beach, from the President of the Essex County Fruit Growers Association at Ruthven, Ontario, and speaks for itself.—ED.

"The past two years have seen considerable discussion in the peach industry of Ontario on the packaging of fruit."

"The fruit season of the present year has come and gone, and, as far as I can see, we are no farther along the road to the discovery of the perfect package than we were last year or the year before."

"What is the reason? Haven't we tried hard enough? Or, was our original packaging system better than we thought?"

"As for myself, I have always

COUNTY COUNCIL CONFRONTED WITH TWICE SIGNED PETITIONS

Bylaw To Create New Village Laid Over As Citizens Are Not In Accord — New Schedule Of Pay For Jail Staff To Be Drafted.

At the opening of the Wednesday sessions of the Lincoln County Council, the proposed bylaw to erect Corbett Park as a police village ran into a snag when a counter petition was presented to council protesting the action.

The petition presented contained 83 signatures, 46 of which, according to Warden Robert Johnston, were also on the original petition for the erection of the area as a police village. The initial petition was signed by 115 persons. The resident signing the second petition informed council, "we feel that this matter has not been properly discussed and explained to the majority of the year-round residents of the area."

Warden Johnston informed council that a delegation of the signers of the petition received today had visited him and informed him that they would like to see action deferred on the erection of the police village and also intimated that they would prefer incorporation into the Village of Port Dalhousie.

The tangle of the 46 signatures on both petitions moved council to defer action on the bylaw which

SATISFYING PROGRESS MADE IN DRIVE FOR HOSPITAL FUNDS

To Date $3,000 Collected In Grimsby And North Grimsby With Five Teams To Hear From — Grateful Patients Fund Unexpected Source Of Revenue.

The drive by the West Lincoln Memorial Hospital for funds to complete financing is now in its final stages for Grimsby and North Grimsby.

Of an objective of $3600. for Grimsby and North Grimsby over $3000 have been gathered in. Of twenty-four teams at work, five still have to report and several others have some back calls to make. All in all the canvass committee feel the objective will be reached when the remaining teams report.

Reports of efforts in other districts indicate a favourable response to this appeal to clean the job up before the end of the year.

One source of revenue unexpected even by those who pride themselves on never overlooking a bet, was the Grateful Patients' Fund at the hospital which has been accumulating in the superintendent's office.

It is confidently expected that by the end of the year this good push will enable the hospital board to wind up the year's business in a very pleasing manner to all who have worked so hard, for so long, to bring this job to a close.

Physicians Completing Their Course In Public Health Come To This County For Experience.

(By Dr. J. M. MATHER, M.O.H., Lincoln Health Unit)

In cooperation with the School of Hygiene, University of Toronto, and the Provincial Department of Health, the Lincoln Health Unit is providing field experience for physicians who have completed their course in Public Health at the University of Toronto.

These physicians come to Lincoln County for a period of two weeks. During that time they are given opportunities to see all phases of the public health program. Part of their time is spent in St. Catharines and the remainder in the rural areas. At the end of the two week period they go to another county health unit where conditions may be a contrast to those in Lincoln County. A total of three months is spent in this field work before a physician takes over his own public health position.

The action was taken after council had been interviewed by a delegation on behalf of the V.O.N., headed by H. L. Craile and Dr. Charles Wray. Several cases of scarlet fever have occurred during recent weeks in this district. The St. Catharines-Lincoln Health Unit has received numerous enquiries in regard to immunization against this disease.

Scarlet fever is caused by a germ called a Streptococcus. This germ may also cause acute tonsillitis, sore throat, erysipelas and several other conditions. Immunization against scarlet fever will usually protect the person against development of the rash but will not prevent the development of these other diseases. However, patients with scarlet fever more often develop serious complications than do those with the other diseases. Therefore, immunization against scarlet fever is of value in

You Wouldn't Know The Street Now

No one would ever think to look at Mountain Street today with its paved street, beautiful homes and well cut boulevards, the above picture was the same street. Nevertheless, it is. This is Mountain street about 1896-97, shortly after the old narrow gauge railway tracks that carried the stone quarry cars to the lake were torn up. The old barn on the left stood just about where Alex. Scott's Smithy stands. There was no building on the corner of Mountain and Main, but the large duplex house now at 27 Mountain street, stood just east of the corner about where the Hydro office is. What is now Orchard Lane was the old George VanDyke Blacksmith shop and carriage works. The house with the fence around it was his home, it is now the Stonehouse Funeral Home. At the far end of the street at the turn up the mountain can be seen the home of Solomon H. Teeter, later owned by C. T. Farrell, now occupied by Andrew Smith. It was on Mountain street that Charles H. Bromley laid the first paved street in Grimsby, that was in 1914.

HOME HAIRCUTS

Barbers in some communities have increased the price of haircuts, and it is said 75 cents is being charged in large cities. Of course, the price is causing some resentment, which has resulted in a boycott. In some cases patrons were so incensed, according to press reports, that they have practically told the tonsorial artists to keep their old haircuts, "What will be the outcome?"

Perhaps the menfolk will allow their hair to grow long enough for a couple of "pig tails" and a ribbon. Or maybe they will collect it in a net until it reaches such proportions as to necessitate going over it with the horse clippers.

One will begin to wonder if we are not on the way back to Revolutionary days when "pig tails" were really in flower. The situation suggests that if hair styles of the present day are to continue and flourish, the male members of the family may have to begin the practice of homemade haircuts. These prevailed years ago in rural districts, when grandpa generally did the trimming for the boys, with frequently remarkable results.

Will the haircut situation, together with the efforts being made to revolutionize men's clothing, lead to a return to knee breeches, long stockings, and silver-buckled shoes?

"A FRIEND" DEFINED

As a result of offering a prize for the best original definition of "A Friend," several years ago, London Tit-Bits came into possession of thousands from all parts of the world. From these the following were selected as the most striking. The first was awarded the prize:

The first person who comes in when the whole world has gone out.

A bank of credit on which we can draw supplies of confidence, counsel, sympathy and love.

One who combines for you alike the pleasures and benefits of society and solitude.

A jewel whose lustre the strong acids of poverty and misfortune cannot dim.

One who multiplies joys, divides griefs and whose honesty is inviolable.

One who loves the truth and you, and will tell the truth in spite of you.

The triple alliance of the three great powers, love, sympathy and help.

A watch which beats true for all time and never "runs down."

A permanent fortification when one's affairs are in a state of siege.

One who to himself is true, and, therefore, must be so to you.

A balancing pole to him who walks across the tight rope of life.

The link in life's long chain that bears the greatest strain.

A harbor of refuge from the stormy waves of adversity.

One who considers my needs before my deservings.

A jewel that shines brightest in the darkness.

A stimulant to the nobler side of our nature.

A volume of sympathy bound in cloth.

A diamond in the ring of acquaintance.

A star of hope in the cloud of adversity.

One truer to me than I am to myself.

Friendship, one soul in two bodies.

An insurance against misanthropy.

A link of gold in the chain of life.

One who understands our silence.

The essence of pure devotion.

The sunshine of calamity.

A second right hand.

AUCTION SALES

A fine place to study human nature is at an auction sale. There the collectors and the buyers of everything from antiques to cracked crocks gather from the four winds of heaven and in their various ways proceed to gather together a motley assortment of lures and penates which in all probability would have been just as well left where they were in the first place.

There are a few characters who are always present. First there is the lady who thinks that anything old is antique and that walnut is valuable no matter what guise it has assumed. There is a certain period of walnut furniture which is neither fish, flesh nor good red herring, which is her special joy, and many the time we have heard, or overheard—"Well, my dear, it must be good. It is certainly walnut—and an antique."

Then there is the woman who buys crocks. For some reason these articles of kitchen ware command an inflated price at any sale. One particular instance comes to mind when crocks with many cracks went so high as to astonish even an inveterate sale addict and we went down town and discovered that she had paid five cents more than the current price for a new one in the store.

Boxes of assorted kitchen utensils go high, too, and here some astonishing values often come to light. While at the present time fine big dining room tables will sell for a song.

But there are still many things which will bring pleasure to their new owners. There are bits of furniture for which a place is waiting, which may bring satisfaction for a lifetime. There are bits of glass in those collections. There is often sun and wind and an excuse for spending an afternoon outdoors. And there are the people, always the same yet always new, who from the disposal of the effects of someone more, or less, fortunate ate are adding to may someday be a store which in its turn, the nucleus of an auction sale.

Letters to the Editor

50 Franklin Place
Summit, N.J.
November 18, 1946.

Dear Orlon:

The picture you want identified in the Independent of the 14th instant is the former Ed. Mibell place of business where he conducted Tinsmithing and the sale of stoves and some hardware. It was located on the North West corner of Main and Depot Sts. I can not recall its earlier history which I often discussed with Mibell.

"Bill" Mitchell, his son-in-law, had the Express Office in the store, part on the first floor, and the upper part was used by Mibell as his workshop.

I could have answered the Elm St. question you had a while ago, but your paper was not delivered here until the day before you went to press. I get the paper any where from a Saturday to the following Wednesday.

I believe I can identify Mibell standing to the right side of the doorway. Pictures are too blurred to make a proper identification.

I'll have to hunt through my things and see if I can locate some old pictures.

I would not be surprised that you did not miss out on the watermelon in the R.R. wreck at the G.T.R. station. I know I had a slice from some one at the wreck. It all remains vivid to my mind.

Snodgrass replaced the old Mibell property with the present building. Alongside of it was Fitch's home and drug store and then I believe came Farrell's shoe shop.

Sincerely,
L. D. Barchfeld

Who says that a paper can't feel and think?
Yellowed pages, ancient ink
Volumes dusty and touched with mold—
Yet how much of the life of the town they hold.

Star-aimed faiths of the men who dreamed,

All set forth in the musty files—
Accounts of times when the "eagle screamed," Accounts of days when the town's heart bled
Solemnly mourning heroic dead,
Stories of triumph and stories of pain,
Days of sunshine and of rain,
Witty lines and commonplaces,
Old friends, half forgotten faces,

Tennessee Mountain Women

By A. W. OGDEN in The Christian Science Monitor
Spinning wheels turn slowly in front of a crackling log fire at a weather-beaten, graying, mud-chunked log cabin, more than a century old, in the forested Great Smoky Mountains of Tennessee.

Out on a rocky hillside, near an old log barn, sheep graze contentedly, penned in by a sagging rail fence which zigzags around in open field and up into the woods carpeted by red, brown, green, and golden leaves.

There is a link between the spinning wheels and the sheep at this picturesque cove of Green Blar Valley, which time seems to have forgotten in its mad whirl.

The Walker Sisters, who live alone, are shepherds of their flock. The four sisters—there were five of them until last year—shear the sheep, wash the wool, card, spin, and dye it with walnut bark. They make their own clothing.

Hetty, Louisa, Martha and Margaret Jane, ranging in age from 57 to 76, are considered examples of resourcefulness and independence seldom seen since the early days of America. That was recognized by the National Park Service, which, after taking over their 122-acre mountain farm as a part of the Great Smoky Mountains National Park, permitted the sisters to live on, undisturbed.

They do all the chores on the farm, much of its work that is ordinarily regarded as a man's. They sow, cultivate, and harvest their corn, beans, potatoes, and other crops.

In the spring they can be seen walking along the furrows, their faces almost hidden in the big poke-bonnets which reach to their shoulders. Two of them will drop seed corn and another will quickly rake over the dirt with a hoe.

In the fall they haul in much of the fruits of their labor, often with the help of a heavy wooden sled. Then, too, they carry over a ladder from the cabin loft to the orchard to gather apples high in the trees.

Strings of green and yellow peppers are hung on the porch. Seed cucumbers also mellow there and, before Thanksgiving, pumpkins are brought in.

Sweet milk, buttermilk, and butter are kept in crocks in a dark, cool spring house, where clear water bubbles out of the mountain side and flows on around the cornfield, down alongside the dirt road which winds up from a wooden gate a quarter of a mile away. Back a few steps from the spring house is a deep, vine-shaped spring, where a long-handled dipper rests on the green moss.

Watermelons, in season, are kept cold in the spring house. Jars of preserved fruits and vegetables are stacked up in this natural refrigerator.

Wraps which the sisters wear around their shoulders were woven by them from their own woolen yarn. Cotton, hand-batted, used for padding in some quilts, comes from a patch on their farm. Their bedspreads take a lot of work. The spreads are hand-woven and hand-dyed, of different designs. The designs have names like Seashell, Western Rattlesnake, and Double Bow Knot. It takes more than two months to spin and weave all that goes into a quilt. The woolen hose which they wear were knitted by them, too. During the war they knitted woolen socks for nephews in service overseas.

On pegs over the doors are slung mountain rifles and the sisters know how to use them. Once one of their brothers came over for a visit with his two sons. The boys thought they were good shots, so they went out with Margaret and notched a mark on a tree. The boys stepped off and did right well shooting their rifle. Then Margaret took the gun and hit the mark right in the middle.

They are not bothered by unwelcome intruders, but bears and foxes which attempt to raid some mountain barnyards are nuisances at times.

Sometimes Wiley Oakley, the Roamin' Man o' the Mountains, guides tourists to the cabin, over winding, narrow dirt roads which lead off from the main highway, but for months the sisters would not allow any visitor to take their pictures.

One of the sisters, Louisa, likes to write naive poems, which she will show to a visitor or, with twinkling eyes recite. One poem was inspired by the taking over of land for the park and the first verse went like this:

"For us poor mountain people
"They don't have a care
"But must have a home for
"The wolf, the lion and the bear."

HYDRO HOME ECONOMIST

Hello, Homemakers! The increased price of milk has caused considerable consternation, but there are certain facts we must not lose sight of. The foremost being that milk is the most perfect food in our diet—we must not deprive ourselves of the necessary pint of milk daily and the quart for each child daily. The best ways to use milk are as a cold or hot beverage, creamed soups, creamed sauce and milk puddings.

The value lies in the body-building materials sources of energy and fuel, and the vitamins which milk contains. The butterfat or cream of milk is high in fuel for the body, but we have substitutes in large amounts, in the meats and vegetable oils that we use. Thus, skim milk, buttermilk, cottage cheese, are the foods to maintain health and reduce the grocery budget.

Here are some reliable buttermilk recipes—or if whole milk turns sour, don't throw out this expensive food, but substitute it for buttermilk in the following recipes:

BUTTERMILK SALAD DRESSING

1½ tbsps. sugar, 1 tsp. mustard, ¼ tsp. salt, few grains cayenne pepper, 1½ tbsps. of flour, ¼ tsp. onion salt if desired, 1½ tbsps. butter, 1 cup buttermilk, ¼ cup vinegar or lemon juice, 2 eggs.

Mix the dry ingredients. Add the slightly beaten eggs and buttermilk. Cook over boiling water until the mixture thickens, then add the butter and stir in the vinegar or lemon juice very slowly. If the dressing has a curdled appearance, it may be remedied by beating vigorously with a Dover egg beater. This dressing is delicious with vegetable and fish salads.

BUTTERMILK SCONES

2 cups flour, 3 tbsps. butter, ½ tsp. soda, ½ tsp. salt, 2 tbsps. brown sugar, ½ cup raisins if desired, 1 egg, buttermilk to moisten (about ¾ cup).

Sift the dry ingredients. Cut in the butter evenly and mix in the raisins. Beat the egg and add one-half cup of buttermilk. Stir into the dry ingredients with enough more buttermilk to make a soft dough. Divide in half and roll each piece of dough in circular shape about one-half inch thick. Cut in quarters, but do not separate the pieces. Bake in a hot oven about 15 mins.

BUTTERMILK CHOCOLATE CAKE

¾ cup brown sugar, 1 cup buttermilk or sour milk, 6 tbsps. cocoa, 4 tbsps. butter, 1 egg, 1½ cups flour, ¾ tsp. soda, 1 tsp. baking powder.

Cream butter, add the sugar and well-beaten egg. Sift together the dry ingredients and add alternately with the buttermilk to the first mixture. Bake in an electric oven at 350 degs. for 45 mins.

BUTTERMILK PANCAKES

¼ c milk, 1 cup buttermilk or sour milk, 1½ cups flour, 2 1-3 tbsps. baking powder, 1-3 tsp. soda, salt, 1 egg yk, 1 egg white, 2 tbsps. melted butter.

Sift together the flour baking powder, salt and soda. Combine sweet and sour milk. At the unbeaten egg yolk and thifted dry ingredients, then add the melted butter and beat thoroughly. Fold in the stiffly beaten egg white and cook on a hot greased ir pan. Serve with lemon syrup or apple syrup.

TAKE A TIP

1. If you have trouble making light poultry stuffing, try adding a pinch of baking powder. You'll find it especially helpful now that we are using potatoes instead of bread.

2. Try roast chicken with an apple and raisin stuffing for a new flavour. Cut 3 large apples in large chunks and mix with a handful of seedless raisins and 1 tbsps. butter. Stuff and roast chicken in usual way.

3. Save and clarify meat drippings, place them in a container with an equal amount of cold water. Bring to a boil, remove from stove and cool. The fat will solidify and rise to the top, the impurities will settle on the bottom of the pan. This fat makes good biscuits, pastry, gravies or sauces such as creole—good for frying, too.

4. Sugarless hot fudge sauce: Melt 2 squares baking chocolate in top of double boiler. Add ½ tsp. salt and 1 cup light syrup. Blend until thickened. Serve warm.

USE LINCOLN AS

At the present time, Dr. R. G. Grenson of Casselman, Ontario, has been studying this area. He will, on completion of his field training, become assistant medical officer of health, in the health unit in Prescott and Russell Counties.

This type of in-service training is of great value since it gives a physician practical experience in rural public health and shows him the problems he may meet in his own area.

NIGHT PATROLS

across the pavement by high wind, can be taken care of by the patrol crews.

By the use of outdoor telephones, recently placed along all district highways by the Bell Telephone Company, patrol crews will be able to keep the despatcher at Highway Department division headquarters up to the minute on road conditions and he will be able to call out additional ploughs in the event of storms breaking during the night. Ninety per cent. of the Department's snow fences have already been erected along the highways and snow ploughing equipment is ready for the first storm.

NEW INDUSTRY

When completed, he said, the plant will employ about 50 people. Value of the factory, when completed, will be in the neighborhood of $25,000.

The company is using Grimsby supplies wherever possible in the alteration work, and, according to Mr. Geeves, provided that a regular source of supply could be obtained locally, there is every likelihood of the entire Brantford plant being moved to this district.

For the present, Mr. Geeves said, the Grimsby Beach factory would be used for the construction of automatic electric water heaters, oil circulators and automatic oil water heaters.

President and general manager of the company is William Sterling, of Brantford, who, for some time past, has been a summer resident of the Beach.

ARENA OPENS

has proven to be the popular winter spot in the Peninsula for the kids, the teen-agers and the old folks, what with skating and hockey. Everybody had a good time.

It was on January 4th, 1922, that the Arena was first opened and since that time it has handled some mighty large crowds of both skaters and hockey fans. It has produced champions and near champions and will continue to do so.

Twenty-six years is a long way to look back. Who among the men that fought and battled to build this structure had any idea at that time, that in this season of 1946-47 there would be Grimsby boys playing hockey on foreign strands, who at that time were not even born, yet such is the case.

Manager Marr and Old Tom, his good Man Friday, have everything in epic and span shape for the opening and no doubt the ice surface on Saturday night will be jammed. Get out your steel blades and go to town.

COUNTY COUNCIL

had been drawn up and was to have been presented to council at this session. On a motion of Deputy Reeve J. D. Taylor and Reeve Geo. Wiley of Louth Township, council decided to defer any action until such time as the residents become more familiar with the proposed bylaw and make proper presentation to the council.

At the close of Tuesday's session, council approved the report of the general administration committee presented by Reeve Roy A. Saunders of Beamsville. The report recommended the purchase of drapes for the windows in the new chambers and by decorated council new schedule of salaries for the county gaol staff. Accounts presented by Deputy Reeve Harold S. Freure of Clinton Township for the Charity and Welfare committee were ordered paid.

In adopting the report of the Road committee, presented by Reeve William Headlip of Gainsboro, in the absence of Reeve C. W. Durham of North Grimsby, council decided to arrange a joint meeting between the road committee, representatives of the council of the Village of Port Dalhousie and C. W. West, superintendent of the Welland Ship Canal, to discuss improvements to the roads and bridges at the easterly entrance to Port Dalhousie. The council also decided to purchase an International truck from W. J. Oille at his tendered price of $6,487.

Prior to adjournment, the council passed a bylaw confirming a bylaw of the Township of Louth closing up a portion of the road allowance between concession one and two in that municipality.

BODY "LININGS"

If the "linings" of the nose, throat and lungs are healthy, they will be fitter to fight off such diseases as colds, sore throat and pneumonia. Authorities of the Department of National Health and Welfare, Ottawa, say that children require Vitamin A for normal growth and everybody needs Vitamin A to keep eyes, skin and body linings healthy. Vitamin A may be obtained by eating yellow and green vegetables, liver, eggs and dairy products.

John Mitchell was presented with his Gardener's Badge and also his third stripe raising his rank to that of Senior Sixer of A Pack at last week's meeting. Ronnie Moore Barry Bourne and Don Grad were given their first year service star. John Lawson was given his First Star after completing his tests by finally getting his skipping. Larry Lambert is the new second of the Tawny Six, and Ronnie Moore of the Blue Six.

Jim Sims and Peter Bromley were given their second stripe and are now full-fledged Sixers while Albert Mitchell was made Senior Sixer of B Pack. The stripes for seconds will be presented on Dec. 6 to those of highest standing in each Six.

A medley race of 1st Star Tests proved interesting. Two new chums have passed their tests and are ready to be invested and take their place in the Parade Circle. Jack Ryan finished his First Star tests.

A discussion of the Collector's Badge around the camp-fire closed the meeting.

BAPTIST SERVICES WELL ATTENDED

An unusually large congregation gathered in the morning and the church was well filled in the evening last Sunday when the Presbyterian and United Churches withdrew their services in order to assist in the glad celebration of the 70th anniversary of Grimsby Baptist Church.

Dr. Gilmour, Chancellor of McMaster, the guest preacher, gave two fine, thought provoking messages that challenged his hearers in an unusual way.

From parts of the seventh and of the fourth verses of the thirty-seventh psalm "Rest in the Lord and He shall give thee the desire of thine heart." Dr. Gilmour first of all said that rest was not a respite to relieve weariness or exhaustion but a stable foundation and assurance that would give satisfaction to those who possessed it.

He said that there was no stable foundation for either the individual or the world apart from God. And that relying on Him had, did and would give that true satisfaction. And further that this resting came first and then would come not the things that we had previously desired but that He would make those who so rested desire the better things that he wanted to give them.

His evening subject was "The Light of the Word" and the speaker said that of all the different scriptural illustrations of the difference between God and His way and the ways of wickedness none were more vital than that of light for the right and darkness for the evil. It was difficult to define or explain but was just there. He said that Jesus was the Light in three different spheres. Constitutionally in the affairs of nations and between nations. Light of Grace revealing God and His love and redemption to individuals of all races and peoples. And last the Light of Occasions in all spheres of life at any particular time. There would be light to meet every contingency at the very time that situation arose whether it be physical or spiritual.

That Light was always available for each and no one need go forward to any emergency with any misgiving as to the ultimate successful working out of the same.

The choir rendered a fine anthem in a splendid manner at both services in the morning, "Great Peace Have They," and in the evening "Give Thanks."

In the morning Mrs. Canning of Beamsville favored with a splendid solo "A Voice in the Wilderness Crying" and in the evening Miss O'Neil of Hamilton also rendered a fine solo in excellent voice.

Visitors present were Cubmaster Charles Gay of the 42nd troop Hamilton. George Lounsbury, chairman of the Fruitland Group Committee and Keith Milliken and Cecil Bradshaw of the Winona Group committee.

The Ladies auxiliary under the convener'ship of Mrs. W. Tune served hot dogs and coffee which brought this scout meeting to a very pleasant closing.

At the closing circle, D.S.M. Baker presented for Scoutmaster Hambrook the honor patrol flag to his best patrol for the month. Patrol Leader Doug Hambrook of the crew patrol received the flag which was his second win. GOOD OLD CROWS.

THIS HAPPENED IN BEAMSVILLE

(Beamsville Express)

Andy Clarke's story of last week about the owl is stopped this week by Mrs. Victor Juhke's experience on Sunday.

After lighting a fire in her kitchen stove she heard what sounded like a baby's crying. Opening the stove she found a screech owl which had come down the chimney and was lodged at the bottom, much too near the fire for comfort. Pulling him out, Mrs. Juhke carried the bird outside and dipped his beak in a puddle of water. After a few sips he began to recover from his roasting, but Mrs. Juhke kept him until evening before allowing him to proceed home as they say.

Her husband and son were away hunting at the time.

Boys will be boys. But the problem nowadays is in 50-year-old gentlemen trying to keep up with boys.

PRESENTATION TO RETIRING SEXTON

The Churchwardens of St. Andrew's Church entertained the members of the Choir at Dinner last Friday evening in The Oak Room of The Village Inn. About fifty guests were present. The Rector, the Rev'd E. A. Brooks presided.

After the usual toasts and speeches, a presentation was made to Mr. George Hildreth and Mrs. Hildreth on his retirement from the post of Sexton of St. Andrew's after twenty-six years' service. On behalf of the congregation, Mr. V. W. Thompson, People's Warden, presented Mr. Hildreth with a pipe and a tri-light standard lamp as a token of the appreciation of the long and faithful services which he and his wife have rendered to the Church, expressing regret that he now felt that he needed a rest. "George" made a fitting reply.

Musical numbers were contributed to the programme by Mrs. Wm. Layton, Mrs. A. W. Mason and Miss Peggy O'Neill. Mr. B. W. Webster the organist was in a reminiscent mood and recalled early days of his connections with Church choirs and organs and his early associations with many who were present at the dinner.

Among the guests of honour were former Churchwardens and others. Mr. and Mrs. Hartland Dickson, Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George Marr, Dr. and Mrs. Neil Leckie, Rev'd and Mrs. Edwin Weeks, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Geddes, Mrs. Webster, Mrs. E. A. Brooks, Mr. Sam Gardham, Mr. Arthur Mason, Mrs. V. W. Thompson and others. A letter was read from Mrs. Jack Douse, a member of the choir who has recently gone to Ottawa to live, thanking the choir for a gift which was presented to her on her departure.

King of Fruits — and a Queen

The 1946 apple crop in Canada is a bumper one totalling 16 1/2 million bushels, which is 20 per cent higher than the 10 year average 1935-44 and double the 1945 crop. Surplus apples to the needs of the Canadian market will be exported to Britain, the United States and other countries, either as fresh fruit or processed.

CHOIR CONCERT GREAT SUCCESS

The expectations of the large audience that filled the Baptist Church to its utmost capacity last Tuesday evening to participate in the Seventieth Anniversary Concert given by the Hymmen Sisters of Kitchener, were more than realized in spite of the very complimentary press notices concerning their work that has been presented through the courtesy of the local paper.

The natural grace of the three tall queenly artists, their dignified but unassuming manner and their beautiful costumes did much to enhance their truly marvelous performance and the versatility with which they used the different musical instruments was remarkable. All three of the sisters are equally skilled and at home in the use of the pipe organ and piano, two of them are expert violinists and one is unusually clever with the bells. Their rapid changes from one instrument to the other was truly astonishing. In addition to this all are vocalists of a high order.

Every number was excellent and provided a treat for lovers of good music. To single out any one or more numbers from such a program would be almost unfair to the rest. Probably the best received organ and piano numbers were the two piano duet and organ numbers "Poet and Peasant," and "William Tell Overture." Another fine offering was "The Lost Chord" by organ, piano and bells, while "The Sleigh Ride" given as a piano duet elicited rounds of applause. Another fine offering was "Lustell" given as a piano trio and the instrumental and vocal trio including the piano, violin, bells and voices of the three artists in "The Bells of St. Mary's" was another popular number.

Two unusual but greatly appreciated numbers were first. The air to which the Duke of Argyle's paraphrase of the one hundred and twenty first Psalm, "Unto the Hills" was given as an organ solo. This was a request number by one who is a lover both of the Psalm and the music to which it is set and the second was a gentle sweetly beautiful lullaby, which seemed to put the finishing and quieting touch to a wonderful musical evening.

The choir of the church are to be congratulated on their enterprise in bringing these fine artists to town.

RESTRICTIONS ON STYLES REMOVED

All style restrictions on the manufacture of women's, misses', and children's clothes have now been removed, the Wartime Prices and Trade Board announced last week.

With this step the last control over styles of all men's, women's and children's clothing has now been eliminated.

Introduced early in the war to conserve material and labour, the controls restricted such things as length and sweep of dresses to specified measurements, and eliminated lined skirts, culottes, boleros, capes, evening gowns, and other types of clothing considered unessential.

In 1945 all style restrictions on men's clothing were removed and practically all those prohibiting the manufacture of such things as bridal gowns, evening and dinner dresses, pleated back or Norfolk style jackets.

When a woman starts out on a man-hunt she usually gets a man.

Beaver Club

The business meeting of the Beaver Club of St. John's Presbyterian Church was held Monday evening, November 25th, in the Church rooms.

A devotional period opened the meeting and Mrs. D. C. Thomson read the 23rd Psalm. There was a splendid attendance of members and plans were made for the Christmas Party which will be held December 16th. Selected readings, "Snobbery" and "Looking for Happiness" given by Mrs. Richard Shafer were enthusiastically received. Mrs. D. C. Thomson read part of an article from the Readers Digest, "The Egg and I," which provoked much merriment. Shuffleboard was played at the close of the business meeting and an appetizing lunch was served by the hostesses Mrs. Elma McCollum and Mrs. Geo. Douset. During the social half-hour an unsuspecting member was made the recipient of a Birthday parcel while everyone sang Happy Birthday.

Eastern Star

On Tuesday evening, November 19th, the newly elected officers of Grimsby Chapter, 195, O.E.S., were installed for the coming year. Mrs. Bertha Lomas, P.D.D.G.M. of Hamilton and Mr. Cecil Gowland, Grimsby, presided for the installation with Mrs. Mina Danie, F.N.H.B., as Chaplain, and Mrs. Edrie Gowland, Marshal. During the ceremonies Mrs. Florence Caldwell sang and Mrs. Carrie Lyne was organist.

The following were installed into office: Mrs. Inez Cloughley, Worthy Matron; Mr. Lawrence Hysert, Worthy Patron; Mrs. Helei Elmer, Associate Matron; Mr. Herbert Betzner, Associate Patron; Mrs. Nora Chambers, Secretary; Mrs. Muriel Anderson, Treasurer; Mrs. Pearl Betzner, Conductress; Mrs. Ruth Clark, Associate Conductress; Mrs. Lillian Jewson, Chaplain; Mrs. Ruth St. John, Marshal; Mrs. Edna Farrell, Organist; Mrs. Olive Hysert, Adah; Mrs. Vivian Lipsit, Ruth; Mrs. Wilhelmina Cloughley, Esther; Mrs. Hazel Tuck, Martha; Mrs. Betty McNiven, Electa and Mrs. Marjorie Hitchman, Warden.

Gifts from the Chapter were presented to Mrs. Letha McNinch, retiring Worthy Matron by Mrs. Marjorie Hitchman and to Mr. H. Betzner, retiring Worthy Patron, by Lawrence Hysert.

About 80 guests attended the banquet preceding the installation during which songs by Mr. Jack Ansell, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Duncan MacIntosh and piano numbers by Ruth Clark, Pat Harrison and Sandra Sims were enjoyed.

MR. McVICAR HAS HIGH HOPES

MR. McVICAR and his associates of the potential Grimsby Intermediate 'B' entry in the current O.H.A. series, wore very broad smiles after the initial practice held at the local ice palace on Tuesday evening.

Methodists that the smiles which adorned the faces of the above gentlemen were due both to quantity and quality of the puck chasers that were flitting hither and yon about George Marr's sheet of ice. Quantity and then some—in fact the candidates were so numerous that MR. McVICAR had to send them out in a series of relays while he, George Shepherd and other interested members of the executive were studying their respective styles and making mental and written notes of their form. All in all it augurs well for the type of team that will represent Grimsby in the current series.

MR. McVICAR informed your representative that it would be impossible to commence cutting the number of players down for a few practices as he was very anxious to give each and every candidate a real opportunity of displaying his ability and this could not be done in one or two practices. MR. McVICAR intends to conduct most of his practices by actual competition and will definitely have a team selected by the 6th of December when Grimsby play their first exhibition game with Thorold who are boasting of a real strong team this year.

Altogether there were about forty young men on the ice last night and quite a few displayed real hockey ability. It will be simply a question of determining who is the best for the respective position. The point that MR. McVICAR stressed to your representative was that no player has a definite berth as yet and that each and every position is wide open and will only be closed when the best player has clinched the same.

Father O'Donnell was out for the first time this year getting the feel of the ice and under MR. McVICAR'S instructions had the various groups working until their tongues were hanging out.

GRIMSBY ARENA OPENS TO THE PUBLIC SATURDAY NIGHT

PICKED UP ON THE ALLEYS—I knew that little BYFORD girl would come back to form. GOLDEN DROPS took three points from ELBERTAS principally because she hit her stride and rolled 309-222-178 for a 709 triple. MA. BYFORD is still not doing so hot. At that ELBERTAS won a prize, the nightly special for having the low three game total with 2069. . . . Oh, oh. VETERANS took three points from the VALIANTS. How come PHIL. . . . And the VEDETTE outfit dropped two points to the ADMIRAL DEWEY team. Ain't that something. . . . FLORENCE BAISLEY is on the comeback trail. She had two games over 200 and as a result SOUTH HAVENS saved a point against ST. JOHNS. . . . OLLIE SHAW, and his BLACK CATS found out to their sorrow on Monday night that it is useless to try and take anything away from a banker. The three bankers on the BOULEVARD team paced their outfit to a 3-1 win over the CATS and the VILLAGE BANKER showed the felines what real bowling was with a triple 641, which is something for the friends in Ottawa to read about. . . . BOB HARROD with his 308-230-170 for a triple of 708 led the FARMERS to a 3-1 victory over the MONARCHS despite the fact that HARVEY LAMBERT had a 701 triple. The two teams between them had 15 games over 200. . . . POOR OLD GAS HOUSE. The WEST ENDERS hit them hard with a stillson wrench for a 3-1 leakage. RAHN, the unbeatable, had the magnificent total of 341. . . . FOUNDRY boys poured molten metal all over the PIRATES 3-1 despite the fact that LITTLE WHIZZER had a 312 game. They had 15 over 200 games between them. . . . Both GAS HOUSE and PIRATES better tie a knot in their galluses or they will be dropping out of the league.

OVER THE JUMPS WITH CATFISH McGUFFIN—ARCHIE DIXON, world famous manager of the OLD PEACH KINGS, with a smirk on his mug four rods wide when hockey for 1947 is mentioned. Think the old mentor figures that the new edition of the KINGS will really be kingly. . . . MUSH MILLER battling defencemen has taken unto himself a wife Now the real battle will begin. . . . Just wondering the toter night if the MEN'S BOWLING league was going to fling the balls for turkey again this Christmastide. Might get myself practiced up. . . . It won't be long until OLD TOM will be getting his cave ready. . . . Things got all balled up in the FRUIT BELT league again. It always has been that way and it looks like it always will be that way. . . . What the FRUIT BELTERS need more than anything else is men at the heads of the various teams who know what they are doing and then do it, and not be leaving TOM COLLINS hanging out on a limb all the time. Then when things go cockeyed start passing the puck faster than water runs over Niagara. . . . CATFISH McGUFFIN has applied for a position on the FRUIT BELT refereeing staff. That will be good. . . . According to OLD TOM it is going to be a long, cold, hard winter and he is terribly short of sweaters. . . . Saturday was a rather chilly day for the FRUIT BELT and was GEORGE MARR and his ARENA crew taking advantage of it. They sure were making ice. . . . BIG RUSHTON was a visitor to town on Monday. The Pride of Tara reports that the hamburger business in Dundas is 100 per cent. He states that there is a movement on foot in the Valley Town to erect an artificial ice arena in that burg next year. BUDDY RUSHTON is playing in the Hamilton Juvenile League with the Mahony team. . . . The rail birds report that OLD POP threw so many potential Peach Kings over the boards for practice on Tuesday night that the ice resembled a skating carnival. . . . LIONS CLUB big indoor carnival, High School Auditorium, Friday evening, December 6th. . . . MANAGER MARR reports that his frozen water igloo is practically booked up solid for the winter. Public skating will be Wednesday and Saturday nights. . . . Now that hockey practices have started PEACH KINGS Manager HERBIE JARVIS is busier than a one-armed paperhanger with the cooties. . . . Bought your ticket yet on the LEGION drawing for 10 occasional chairs?

had my tongue in my cheek when listening to all the condemnations of the six quart leno basket. The majority of the criticisms were unsound, as we are finding out to our disillusionment. However, it was a nice feeling to condemn our package instead of our fruit. And also, it was going to be nice to be rid of all the bother with racks and divider boards. The way to pack peaches was in flat baskets like tomatoes or to pack them in bushels like the Americans."

In my opinion, we were fundamentally wrong in our criticisms of the six quart leno basket except on one count—that it was a heaped package and required special care and equipment to handle it. All our other criticisms were false because they condemned the container for what was inside."

"Last fall the majority of us seemed ready to throw out this package entirely—a package that had been the standard package for Ontario soft fruits for quite a number of years. And despite the fact that we had not proved or had any definite knowledge whatsoever that we had a more satisfactory package to take its place."

"It is fundamental that if we are going to have a new package, we must have a package for selling our fruit that will sell on the open market in competition to the six quart heaped basket, and at a price to give us a comparable monetary return for our fruit. If we haven't been able to prove that a new package will do this, then we are foolish to discard the old."

"In my opinion, the package situation has been handled improperly. The industry should not have to submit to the outlawing of a package that has been its leading package for years, and still is."

"The democratic way of doing away with something that is not entirely satisfactory is to find something better that will naturally displace it. If you haven't anything better you have something worse. Let this be our principle, and let us continue to try and find something better."

"As for myself, I have tried almost every package available for shipping peaches, except the B. C. wrapped box. Bushels, half-bushels, cartons of various types, and wire-bound boxes; I have tried these with great hope and without prejudice. And in spite of all the publicity and tirades against the six quart leno basket, and in spite of the labour involved in packing and handling this package, I still find that this is the package I want for the bulk of my fruit. It is what is demanded in every market that I am acquainted with, if the market can get it. I find that more peaches will move in the six quart leno basket than in any other package at a comparable price. I find that it is easier to pack No. 1 peaches in it than in any other consumer package, and without pre-cooling the peaches arrive on distant markets in better condition because of the excellent ventilation afforded by it."

"As far as I am concerned, I think I would be going backward if I reverted to the bushel basket except for the retail canning trade. I believe there is a trend in the U.S.A. to a consumer package that will carry riper peaches than the bushel. I sold quite a few bushels of peaches in Detroit this year. I also sold a load of six quart baskets with piffilm covers at the same time as some of the bushels. The price on the six quarts was considerably better than the bushel price."

"The six quart leno received much of its ill-repute from the poor fruit put in it. Whatever we pack peaches in, it is up to us to make the product satisfactory. Any package can be packed dishonestly and overfaced."

Perhaps a cover for the six quart basket that allows a more open view of the fruit would be desirable. But the transparent cover we had this year is not nearly as suitable as the cloth cover in any way."

"For three years the express companies have said that they can not handle heaped packages any longer."

"We have said that we will try and do away with the heaped package. And the express companies agreed to handle the package temporarily, rather than disrupt the fruit industry."

"We have appreciated this gesture very much. They carried out their bargain, but I am sorry to say that I can't see that we are in a position to carry out our part of the bargain."

"Now if the express companies have gone as far as they can in co-operating with the fruit industry, they must rule accordingly. And we shall try and move our fruit by other methods until we are in a position to change our package."

"I hope some way can be found whereby the express companies can continue to render as great a service to the fruit industry in the future as they have in the past."

George P. Whaley,
President, Essex County Fruit
Growers' Association.

KILLED INSTANTLY

car and was either thrown or carried a considerable distance.

Mr. Cyrka was a native of Poland and came to Canada in 1912, residing in the Grimsby district for the last 30 years. He had been employed on C. H. Bonham's fruit farm for the past nine years. He resided with Paul Waituk, on Baker's sideroad, near Grimsby Beach, and was an adherent of St. Mary's Ukrainian Catholic Church.

Provincial Constable William Gillings and Coroner Dr. A. F. McIntyre investigated and ordered removal of the body to the Stonehouse Funeral Home.

AUXILIARY BISHOP

symbols of office, the mitre, shepherd's staff, pectoral cross and the fisherman's ring denoting him as the successor to the Apostles.

Most Rev. Francis P. Carroll, Bishop of Calgary, a noted ecclesiastical orator, and, like Bishop Webster, a graduate of St. Michael's college and St. Augustine's seminary, delivered the sermon.

The ceremony was preceded by a procession of priests, monsignori and bishops, the last being attended by their chaplains and Cardinal McGuigan, garbed in the attire of a bishop, carrying the shepherd's crook and wearing the red cappa magna, or great cloak. He was attended by a guard of honor of Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus bearing upraised swords.

Rt. Rev. J. A. McDonagh, from the pulpit, read the papal mandate creating the new bishop, as the cardinal sat upon a fold-stool at the high altar and Bishop Webster was attended by the co-consecrators sitting before a side altar. Then the oath was taken that "Benjamin Webster, bishop-elect, will from this time forth be faithful and obedient to Blessed Peter, to the Holy Apostolic and Roman Church and to Our Holy Father Pope Pius," was given.

Bishop Webster, who will be auxiliary to Cardinal McGuigan, and who has full episcopal powers, was born in St. Catharines and served in parishes at Orillia, Toronto, Grimsby and Welland. He was pastor of St. Mary's in Welland when appointed to the episcopate. He studied at St. Augustine's seminary, St. Michael's college and the University of Toronto.

The new bishop will assist the cardinal and will act in his stead when his eminence is absent. Bishop Webster will officiate at religious functions in the archdiocese, such as confirmations.

Because he is not in charge of a see of his own, Bishop Webster becomes titular bishop of Pafos, an ancient diocese in Africa or Asia.

COUNTY TO HELP

of Merritt to the county of a proportion of the payments received by the town from Wartime Housing Limited. After some heated discussion in committee session, council moved to hold the question in abeyance.

Approval was given by council to the report of the Finance Committee, presented by Reeve Leslie Lynburner of Calstar Township, recommending that a rate of $2.50 per day for the maintenance of county patients in Bellevue Hospital be paid as from November 1st.

The Warden, Reeve Secord, Reeve R. A. Saunders of Beamsville and Deputy-Reeve H. S. Freure of Clinton were authorized to interview the St. Catharines City Council with a view towards getting the city's assistance in obtaining provincial aid to Bellevue Hospital. The request of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind for a grant to the Niagara District Building Fund was deferred for consideration at the December meeting of the council.

Reeve George Wiley of Louth Township presented the report of the Board of Management of the Industrial Home and council moved its adoption.

Deputy-Reeve J. Douglas Taylor of Louth, Reeve George Wiley and Clerk W. H. Millward were instructed by council, upon adoption of the report of the Agricultural Committee, to prepare a brief on behalf of the County Council to be submitted to the Department of Agriculture regarding testing of cattle for bovine tuberculosis. Copies of the brief will be sent also to N. J. M. Lockhart, M.P., and to Senator the Honourable J. J. Bench, K. C.

The action was taken following receipt of a communication from the Department of Agriculture regarding testing in Lincoln and Welland counties. In a resolution passed last month, council requested immediate action and the department replied that it was not able to do so due to the shortage of inspectors. Council then adjourned until Tuesday morning, Dec. 10th.

MUCH PUBLICITY

steak in front of me, I found myself enthusiastic, too.

It was Miss O'Neill's first anniversary as manager of the old hotel, and we had just admired the overflowing basket of giant mums, and the dozen deep red roses which the owner, Gordon A. Hannah, had sent to commemorate the occasion.

This first year has been a wonderful success, and many old friends like our English colonel have come back, while many hundreds of others, both from Canada and the States, have discovered the Village Inn for the first time.

But after Peggy has told you of her pleasure in meeting so many wonderful people, she can be induced to tell you something of what it has meant in hard work, supervision and careful planning.

Probably the most important factor in the success has been the manager's own personality. No one can meet her without being influenced by Miss O'Neill's effervescent spirits, her inborn genius as a hostess, her innate ability as an entertainer.

The house itself is a beautiful, old, historic place; but one which had suffered a considerable let down in recent years. As you swing into Grimsby from the Queen Elizabeth Highway it fronts you two blocks away. As you drive through on No. 8, you find it on that road, too.

Built about 130 years ago, after the hectic years of the War of 1812, the front portion of square cut red limestone, quarried from the mountain a few hundred yards to the rear. A broad, sweeping, pillared verandah extends along its entire front. Pleasing pediments give a graceful Georgian touch to its colonial severity.

In 1906 it was purchased by the late John Hewitt, a Chicago millionaire, who had been born and raised in Grimsby. The following year he built a three storey addition behind, and opened The Village Inn to the public at a civic banquet on June 23, 1906.

J. Orion Livingston, editor of the Grimsby Independent, an expert in local history, recalls that it was the only hotel — outside of a few in larger cities — which then boasted a bath and a phone in each room. The Hewitt tradition demanded the utmost in service, and his hotel built up an international reputation at a moment when the automobile was beginning to appear on North American roads. A garage behind the hotel could hold 100 motor cars.

After Mr. Hewitt died in 1919, the hotel was operated by his estate until 1924, when it was sold to Napoleon Servais, who operated it as an ordinary commercial hotel. Since then it has passed through a variety of hands and suffered considerable decline. On October 31, 1945, it was acquired by Gordon A. Hannah, who placed Miss O'Neill in to operate it.

Taking over the fine old hotel, Miss O'Neill was faced with the imperative need for renovation at a time when many necessary supplies were in short supply. She determined to concentrate on the ground floor. Lobby, drawing room, the beautiful Oak Room, and the kitchens have been redecorated and refurbished.

The Oak Room is about 80 feet by 60, and occupies most of the main floor of the Hewitt addition. Two floors of guest rooms are above, and the kitchen and staff rooms occupy a two floor annex behind the main building.

When decorators wanted to "modernize" the entire place Peggy refused. She thought it would be incongruous, and from results it certainly must be agreed she was right, as the decorators themselves have admitted. Beauty of the Oak Room lay in its oak beamed ceiling, the oak panelled arches which run down the middle of the room, its quarter oak flooring, and the fine oak tables and furniture.

These are all retained. The floor has been brought back to its polished glory; the walls and ceilings painted aquamarine; regency red drapes added to the beautiful large windows, and also on the central arches where they can be drawn to give privacy for banquet purposes while still leaving half of the enormous room for public dining. A permanent public address system has been installed.

Lobby and drawing room have been plastered and decorated and furnished with comfortable new furniture which along with new lamps, retains the comfortable atmosphere of the fine old building. In the lobby, walls and ceilings are done in tints of French grey, with regency blue drapes on two full length windows. In the drawing room blush pink walls and a turquoise carpet from wall to wall gives a warm and restful appearance.

New stoves in the kitchen, new steam tables, an electric dish washer, walk-in boxes, wine cellar and five new refrigerators — all in stainless steel — as well as much other new equipment makes things much easier for the chefs and their helpers. Cooking is done with natural gas which is found nearby. Mr. Hewitt sought to find it on his own property once, but after going down 1,700 feet struck salt water.

In the beverage rooms, too, new refrigeration and bar equipment has been installed, and these rooms are high on the list for complete renovation in the near future.

Miss O'Neill was born and raised in the hotel business. Her father, James Edward O'Neill, operated the Rideau Hotel, Smith's Falls, and many relatives were also in the business. Gordon Hannah knew the family, and when he took over the Hotel Grimsby, ten years ago, he brought Miss O'Neill in as book-keeper.

But the front office chores were never enough to keep Peggy O'Neill occupied. She has a beautiful voice, and an unlimited capacity for entertainment. These and her personality soon made themselves felt. It was natural that she should be picked to operate the rejuvenated Village Inn.

Even while the first steps were being taken to renovate the old rooms, the new manager was opening up new business. Various advertising methods were tried but two proved most useful.

Every Saturday at noon, a five minute broadcast over CKOC, Hamilton, draws attention to coming attractions and suggests that hearers might drive over during the weekend. Another valuable medium is the Toronto Globe & Mail. Small display ads were tried in a number of papers, but this one drew most successfully.

"One party tells another," says Miss O'Neill when asked what she considers the best form of advertising. Personal recommendation tops the list!

The Village Inn is becoming famous for wedding parties, and special functions. By the end of the previous month, there were already 15 such parties scheduled for November. On November 8, an anniversary dance was held, with proceeds to the West Lincoln Memorial Hospital. On November 16 a weekly dinner dance programme began.

An idea of the size of some of the functions can be gathered from the fact that at one dance in the Oak Room 200 couples were present. Banquets have seated as many as 300. Both of these were capacity affairs.

"Some people think that the little things are too much trouble but I have always found that it is the little things that count," Peggy says. And it is true that the smallest details are never overlooked. For example, when a wedding dinner is scheduled, Miss O'Neill finds out what colour the costumes of the attendants are to be, Table decorations and favours are arranged in matching colours.

Where do the new guests come from? Hamilton, Toronto, St. Catharines, Niagara Falls send their regular quotas. Many come from New York state, and of course tourists are in from all over the continent. Not only has the downstairs trade increased out of all proportions, but the room trade has pressed capacity all summer.

When Miss O'Neill took over the management, there were six apartments rented on a permanent basis, occupying all the rooms at the front of the house, and some in the Hewitt addition, too. As these are vacated they are being turned into guest rooms, which are in demand. Next year, when the entire guest room floors will probably be modernized, it is hoped that the entire house will be available for transient guests.

With the approach of another school term, National Health authorities advise parents to consult the family doctor to ensure that children are completely protected against diphtheria, tetanus, whooping cough and smallpox. It is urged that inoculations be arranged where necessary, and such "boosters" as the doctor recommends.

IMMUNIZATION

There is a skin test known as the Dick test which is used to determine whether a person is susceptible to scarlet fever. Nearly all children are susceptible so that the test is usually used only in older children and in adults. If the person is considered to be susceptible to scarlet fever, 5 injections, each one week apart, are given. A few people develop symptoms of fever, vomiting, and occasionally a rash after these injections. These reactions usually subside within 24 hours.

It is not possible for the St.
Catharines-Lincoln Health Unit to offer scarlet fever immunization on a county-wide scale at the present time. However, it is realized that parents may wish to have this protection for their children, therefore, children may be brought to the Unit office in Beamsville any Wednesday afternoon between 2:00 and 4:30. Your family physician has the material available for immunization against scarlet fever.
Seek his advice in this matter.

Do not expect scarlet fever immunization to give as good results as diphtheria toxoid or some of the other immunizing agents. However, it is of real value in that it prevents the disease in about 70% of persons and certainly does lessen the severity of the complications when scarlet fever does occur.

C OF C. REORGANIZES

It was known merely as the Old Forty.
Erwin W. Phelps was appointed chairman, with the following named to act as an organizational committee: Dr. W. Aubrey Crich, D.S.
Morton, Tennyson Jarvis, George
Marr, Stephen Andreychuk, Dalton
Fretz, William Palmer, J. B. Mc-
Causland, A. A. Constable, Archie
Aiton, D. B. Marshall, Wilfred
Lawson, M. A. Johnson and Robert Johnson. The committee will meet this week to arrange for a membership drive and also to make preparations for holding a supper meeting in January, at which time the election of a Board of Directors will take place.

Town Councillor C. M. Bonham advocated the formation of a strong organization to develop the district's basic industry rather than attempting to attract new manufacturers to the town. "I do not think that Grimsby could be called an industrial town, now or ever," he said. "This town always has and always will depend on those few thousands here who are in the fruit growing business. Most of our present factories depend on fruit for their very life. It is my opinion that we should use the industry we have around us to build our town."

Suggesting that the new Chamber of Commerce should inaugurate an active campaign to publicize the district, Tennyson Jarvis stated,
"this town is developing so fast that we could do wonders with an organized effort. We should outline in detail all the ways and means possible to advertise and sell our district. I feel certain that we can do a lot of good if we carry on with this in mind."

"Some of you were born here and just got used to the place," commented Mr. Marshall, "but I came here because the place looked good to me. In my opinion this district needs some merchandizing, and the Chamber of Commerce is the most effective way of achieving it. We are dependent on peaches in this district. That is the fundamental thing that keeps Grimsby going. If this community is going to grow we have to be prepared to go out and tell others about it."

Inclusion of foreign-born residents of the district, both fruit growers and merchants, in any program decided upon was recommended by Igor Bossy. "When you are looking forward," he said, "you cannot look on these foreign-born people and say to them that they cannot do this or the other. I think that you should include these people in any organization that you form for the advancement of the town and district. After all, they came here of their own free will and they are just as interested in seeing the district go ahead as those of you who were born here."

Any organization that is strong in membership, and effort, and has the wealth of the land back of it, is powerful, and that is what we need to get this Chamber of Commerce going."
T. L. Dymond pointed out that there was no lack of things that a Chamber of Commerce could do in this district. "We should have the town in the best shape possible," said. "We have to improve the product and this organization could certainly help."

"Any district which has pride in itself has room for an organization of this kind," commented H.
V. Betzner. "We should set ourselves a definite objective and work towards that."

Among the others who presented views along a similar line were Dr.
W. Aubrey Crich, Erwin Phelps,
Archie Aiton, C. D. Millward, Geo.
Earr, Robert Bourne, Dalton Fretz, Lawson, J. B. McCausland, A. A.
Constable, W. Pinder, W. McPherson
and J. O. Livingston.

SERVICEMEN GOING BACK TO ENGLAND

Three Grimsby boys who served overseas and returned home with English war brides are returning to England, with the brides and babies to take up residence.
Mr. and Mrs. Guy Winters, Mr.
and Mrs. Mike Siblock and Mr.
and Mrs. Grant Duffield, are leaving Grimsby on Monday night for New York, from which port they will sail on Tuesday on the George Washington for England.

All three boys had five years service overseas and still have a hankering for the salt sea air and the English countryside, hence their decision to return to the British Isles.

"SCHNOZZLE" HAS A DANCING PART

Jimmy Durante dances for the first time in thirty-five years as an entertainer.

The "Schnozzle" makes his hoofing debut with pert Kathryn Grayson in M-G-M's gay new musical,
"Two Sisters from Boston," coming to the Roxy on the first three days of next week. Miss Grayson and June Allyson are the two sisters of the title with Lauritz Melchior and Peter Lawford other headliners in the cast.

The story, centering on Miss Grayson's attempts to reach the grand opera stage via a Bowery beer hall floor show, gives Durante a field day for his varied talents. He sings, dances, plays the piano, makes faces—and even acts!

Among the numbers in which the comedian participates — either as dancer, singer or piano accompanist—are "The Fire Chief's Daughter," "Down by the Ocean," "After the Show" and "G'wan Home Your Mudder's Callin'." The songs are the work of Sammy Fain and Ralph Freed.

No one ever pushes around the fellow who has push and pull.

Social Department

The Fifth Form Fling, the first in a new series of dances in which the entertainment is provided by a specified form, was held on Friday last.

The aforementioned entertainment took the form of a humorous radio drama. We think it was humorous anyway even if the major portion of the students didn't.

However setting aside the entertainment the dance was a success and throughout the New Year the other forms will have a chance to better the entertainment which Fifth Form offered them last Friday.

Sports Department

Now when the wintry wind is whistling madly about the dreary playing field that only a few weeks ago was the scene of many a never-forgotten battle to preserve the honour of dear old Grimsby High. Now that the last tackle has been made and no more does the odour of liniment and honest sweat permeate the locker room, we turn to a new sport—the fine game of basketball.

But before we do we would like to pause and reminisce a while.

It has been a fine rugby season this year and both Senior and Junior teams have done well for themselves. Remember away back in September when our Senior Rugby team beat Ridley College twice and then went on to beat Dunnville in a hard fought game by a score of 12-0? Then came the games with Dundas in which the Senior team again proved themselves to be a pretty fair team by trouncing that school in both games they played. However they weren't invincible and had to take defeat with victory as was shown in two of the best and closest clashes of the entire season—the games with Merrittion H.S. when the Seniors were beaten twice—the first time 13-6 and the second time 10-5. However the games we like to recall most were the ones that were played with our old rivals the lads from Beamsville. Ah, yes, sweat and revenge. After being beaten by the green and yellow boys for the last 3 or 4 seasons, the Senior football team decided that it had gone just a trifle too far. The result was two victories by scores of 12-6 and 7-5 for G.H.S., and complete humiliation of the once-proud Beamsville bunch was obtained.

The complete roster of the organization that accomplished this fine record of 7 wins as against 2 losses follows:

The Team—Snap, Smerek; In-sides, Swann, W. Farrell; Middles, Kapusti, Jones; Ends, A. MacMillan, Catton; Flying Wing, D. Cole; Halfbacks, Jewson, Ruse, Riches; Quarterback, A. McPherson.

Alternates: Juras, Metcalf, Zimmerman, MacAlonen, R. Cole, Tokiwa, B. MacMillan, Lindensmith, Smith, Koszlo.

Coaches—D. O. Awde and J. Merkley.

Manager and Trainer—A. J. Brydon.

Cheerleaders—G. Boyd, J. Higgins and M. Fogacher.

There they are: and we think they have had a fine season—one which we'll all remember.

Next week there will be an article on the Junior as Bantam teams.

Student of the Week

This week our Student of the Week is the girl who turns up five minutes early every morning at school to play the piano in assembly. A popular Upper School student she takes an active part in all student activities. And as an accomplished pianist she gives freely of her talents and her time to increase your enjoyment of student activities, this week S.O.T.W. Madeline Pogacher.

P.S. She also types his column every week.

Joke of the Week:
Due to circumstances beyond our control there is no Joke of the Week this week, as the only humorous thing that we can think of at the moment is that brilliant tie that Mr. Branscombe has been sporting lately. He looks like something out of Equire. (Come to Bourne's Men's Wear for one just like it!)

Coming Events:

This week's special event comes tomorrow night when last year's successful final exam candidates don their caps and gowns to graduate officially. Ye, tomorrow night will see the presentation of Grimsby High School's Annual Graduation Exercises. We understand that the general public is cordially invited and we hope that the event will be well attended. (Tickets obtainable from students at 25c).

The program this year is to be somewhat changed. The commencement or presentation will be cut as short as possible paving more time for dancing and enjoyment.

Hear Ye! Hear Ye! Hear Ye! Everybody welcome.

On December 6th in the High School Auditorium the Grimsby Lion's Club are holding an indoor carnival. Don't miss it.

The At Home on December 20th promises to be one of the best ever held at G.H.S. More about the Dance of the Year later.

Sidelights:

That popular red-head Don Gardham was home last weekend and when we saw him he seemed to be much improved. For those who may not have known, Don has been confined to the Hamilton General Mystery, Intrigue, Drama, Murder—Who killed the rooster in the G.H.S. chicken house? Guess we better call in "Sherlock" McKiey.

The usually staid male staff of Grimsby High suddenly came to life with a blast this week.

Two of our dignified, portly, handsome, intelligent, (we know which side of the butter our bread is on), male teachers have shown a very unexpected flair for neckwear of the most radical.

Extremely bright red and white checks, and brown and white modernistic designs predominate.

The gentlemen's choice, we think, shows extremely fine taste.

With the result that bow ties of the rather large and Sinatrah type are flashing about through the halls of dear old G. H. S. like Neon signs.

Carry on, gentlemen. We agree with you in every respect.

Well that just about does it for this week, kiddies, and if "Fatto" Cole will not forget to take off his graduation gown after he receives his diploma tomorrow night so he won't get all tangled up in it at the dance after, we'll tell you more next week.

TURKEY PRICES

All bulk purchases of Christmas turkeys by industrial concerns or service clubs for distribution among employees or other persons must not exceed the wholesale ceiling prices according to a recent announcement of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

In many cases industrial companies have been willing to pay the retail price demanded by some suppliers in order to obtain a sufficient supply of Christmas turkeys.

The practice of supplying bulk purchasers with turkeys at higher than ceiling prices has in past years resulted in a serious shortage in retail stores where the retailer cannot, by law, pay more than the wholesale ceiling price, officials pointed out.

They also explained that when a company bulk purchases turkeys for resale to employees, the wholesale ceiling price still applies and this price must not be exceeded.

This applies in all such cases irrespective of the distribution by the bulk purchaser after delivery to him.

HEALTHFUL WATER

Warning that water can be an instrument of death as well as of life and health, the Department of National Health and Welfare has issued a reminder of the dangers of pollution of water sources. The health authorities point out that water should never be used for washing, swimming or cooking purposes, much less for drinking, unless its source and purity have been certified by public health engineers.

Human nature is what makes a man always want the other one to take a chance first.
